

Down in the jungle in a far away land, there is a monkey called an orangutan

With big long arms and feet like hands Swinging from branch to branch she must have exciting plans

Carrying her baby on her back Looking through leaves for their next snack

called an orangutan

They have big brown bushy bums
And they also have four thumbs.
