

Amazing Animals

by Finlay B

He's awake in Africa, the sun has risen but you need to watch out!

He might need some breakfast,

He thinks you look tasty,

Be still, not hasty.

On the rock of pride, anything can go wrong

For when the birds are chirping their morning song,

The animals go wild by the watering hole,

For the king of the plains,

Getting ready to pounce

Just look around and be silent, before his roar is announced.

He thinks you look tasty

Be still not hasty,

The whiffy warthogs skip up to drink

Whilst the giraffes are up high looking proud, you lay there still quiet not making a sound.

The big old boy strolls into the shade,

Having eaten his brunch

So strong, not afraid.
